

VP Debates and Updates

I hope people enjoyed the VP debates as much as I did. I thought both candidates did a fine job. I laughed a lot and got mad a lot. Must see TV, since The Office wasn't on.

I just have one beef: I think my biggest struggle with voting for Obama at this point isn't his politics or what he wants to accomplish in office...it's Obama supporters, plain and simple. Let's try to have a little class. Stop it with the old man jokes, and the mocking of regional dialects. Seriously, my vote is in jeopardy because of you.
